

H.R. Dec. 6, 1990
Luella Latcham

Luella Latcham, 92, of Grinnell died of a stroke Sunday, Dec. 2, at St. Francis Manor, where she had been a resident the past two years.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Grinnell United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Raymond C. Lott officiating. Organist was Margaret Wheeler, and vocalists were Robert and Marlene Toney.

Pallbearers were Clarence Cogley, Sheldon Figland, Delmar Larsen, Raymond Larsen, Gail Latcham, Lyle Latcham and Donald Souter. Honorary bearers were Scott, Lenna, Allan, Gary, Michael, Paul and Kristi Latcham and Chad and Tammy Wilkins.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery. Memorials in Mrs. Latcham's name may be made to the Grinnell United Methodist Church.

The daughter of Charles O. and Anna Maria Enerson Figland, she was born Sept. 15, 1898, on a farm southeast of Grinnell. She attended Grant No. 7 School. She was married to Paul Joseph Latcham Oct. 29, 1919, in Grinnell. The couple farmed north of Grinnell for several years, then in the Ewart area. They came to Grinnell in 1954.

Mrs. Latcham was a member of the United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women, Beulah Chapter No. 47 of the Order of Eastern Star, the American Legion Auxiliary, Hopeful Barracks Auxiliary of Veterans of World War I, Harmony Ladies Aid, the Knit and Sew Club, the Grandmothers Club, the Grinnell R.S.V.P. Rhythm Band, and the Poweshiek County Farm Bureau Choir.

She is survived by two sons, Leonard and Allen, both of Grinnell; one daughter, Anna Wilkins, also of Grinnell; nine grandchildren; one great-grandson; two sisters, Clara Cogley and Edith Plikuhn, both of Grinnell; and one brother, Sherman Figland of Los Angeles. She was preceded in death by her husband; one brother, Chester Figland; three sisters, Stella Figland in infancy, Olga Larsen and Alice Barkema; and a half-brother, Bernard Nowack.
