

Keith Lauber Killed In Kellogg Auto Crash

Grinnellian Pinned In Car After Hitting Bridge On Highway 224

Keith L. Lauber, 30, of rural Grinnell, died Friday night of injuries he received in a one-car accident just south of the Kellogg city limits on Highway 224. The accident occurred about 8 p.m.

Lauber, who was driving south, passed another automobile and smashed head-on into the west edge of the bridge which crosses the north Skunk river. He was alone in the car. The impact of the crash stove-ed the front end of the car back into the driving compartment between the dashboard and front seat. The auto's front wheels were shoved back to within approximately 3 1/2 feet of the rear ones.

A wrecker had to pull the car apart before Lauber could be removed. Still alive when he died while being pushed by ambulance to a Newton hospital, Dr. Frank Forsythe, Jasper county medical examiner, pronounced Lauber dead at the hospital.

Probable cause of death was a crushed chest. Lauber also received numerous head cuts and fractures of both legs in the accident. He was Jasper county's third traffic fatality of the year.

Funeral services for Lauber were held this afternoon at the Smith Funeral Home with Elder Fred Phipps of Leclair officiating. Mrs. Rhee Amman was organist and Mrs. Bill Anderson and Mrs. Carroll Smith were flower bearers. Pallbearers were James E. Adkins, Bill Anderson, William R. Badger, Dick Emmert, Iram R. Badger, Dick Emmert, Wayne Patis and Carroll Smith, 1958.

Burial was in Rock Creek cemetery in Jasper County. The son of Henry and Pearl Young Lauber, he was born in Jasper county on March 5, 1934. He attended Grinnell high school and graduated with the class of 1952.

After enlisting in the Army and serving as a corporal with the 804th Artillery in Germany, he was discharged in 1956 and attended Iowa State University for a short period. Lauber then moved to Ohio to work as a heavy equipment operator in highway construction. He returned to Grinnell about one year ago. Married to Nell Justice in 1958, Lauber is survived by her, at the parental home
