

1932

Kellogg, Ia., March 8, Special:

Funeral services were held at the Christian church here Monday afternoon, February 29, for Mrs. Henry Lemke who died at the home of her son Milo Lemke, following a several months illness.

Rev. Roger Winger, pastor of the Christian church at Newton, was in charge of the rites and burial was made in Our Silent City.

Surviving relatives include her husband, Henry Lemke; two sons, Milo of this city and Forrest of Minneapolis; two daughters, Mrs. Letha Simmons of Henrietta, Missouri; and Miss Lillian at home; her father, Keelon Keeton; four brothers, James, Walter, Shirley and Ralph Keeton all of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Lyda Hagmeier, of Redwood, California, and several grandchildren.

Henry