

H. R. Light Of Brooklyn Dies

H-R July 12, 1956

H. R. Light, prominent retired Brooklyn businessman and father of Dr. Raymond Light of Grinnell, succumbed to a cancer ailment last Saturday at the Veterans Hospital in Iowa City, where he was admitted March 20.

Funeral services were conducted July 10th at the Grace Methodist church in Brooklyn with the Rev. M. C. Shupe officiating. Mrs. C. H. Manatt was the organist and interment rites were conducted by the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

Pallbearers were C. W. Fowler, C. C. Ecklund, B. F. Hicks, R. J. Roudabush, Maynard McLain and Russell Ormiston.

Interment was at the Brooklyn IOOF cemetery.

Born at Montezuma on Sept. 8th, 1888, he was the son of Henry Light and Sarah Maddy Light and moved to Brooklyn when a small child. He had made his home there since that time.

During World War I he served in France with the AEF and after his discharge from the Army, entered the lumber and grain business at Brooklyn with his father. He retired in 1946.

Surviving are his wife, Fern of Brooklyn; and two children, Dr. Raymond Light of Grinnell and Jane Ellen at Brooklyn. Other survivors include three grandchildren, one sister and one brother.

He served as a member of the Brooklyn board of education for many years and was the board president. He was also a director of the Poweshiek County Savings Bank.

H-R OBITUARY 7-16- H. R. LIGHT 1956

H. R. Light was born at Montezuma Sept. 8, 1888, the son of the late Henry Light and Sarah Maddy Light. He died of a cancer ailment Saturday, July 7, 1956 at the Veterans hospital in Iowa City.

He moved to Brooklyn as a small child and had made his home there since that time. During World War I he served in France with the AEF and after his discharge from the army, entered the lumber and grain business at Brooklyn with his father. He retired in 1946.

Mr. Light served as a member of the Brooklyn board of education for many years and was the board president. He was also a director of the Poweshiek County Savings bank.

Surviving are his wife, Fern of Brooklyn; and two children, Dr. Raymond Light of Grinnell and Jane Ellen at Brooklyn. Other survivors include three grandchildren, one sister and one brother.

Funeral services were held July 10 at the Grace Methodist church in Brooklyn with the Rev. M. C. Shupe officiating. Mrs. C. H. Manatt was the organist and burial rites were conducted by the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion at the Brooklyn IOOF cemetery.

Pallbearers were C. W. Fowler, C. C. Ecklund, B. F. Hicks, R. J. Roudabush, Maynard McLain and Russell Ormiston.