

DIED.

LINCOLN.—In the vicinity of Oak Grove, June 10, 1882, Edward Lincoln, aged 87 years and two months, leaving a wife in her 75th year, and six children, three here, the rest in Ohio. The deceased was a native of Chilton, County Kent, England. They emigrated to this country in the year of 1854; lived in Ohio eleven years, then came to this place. Deceased was confined to his bed but a short time, and about his last words were, "Let death come, I am prepared, and willing to go." His funeral was largely attended and conducted by the Society of Friends, and some appropriate remarks were delivered by Ezra Pierson, of this place.
