

Lois Lincoln (Ross)

Lois Idell Lincoln, 84, of Grinnell died Friday, Oct. 2, at Winterset Care Center.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Epperson of the Grinnell Christian Church officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud, and pallbearers were Alvin Fopma; Vince Goodliffe; Aaron, Brian and Ross Lincoln; and Joe Puente. Burial was in Westfield Cemetery southwest of Grinnell.

The daughter of James Clen and Eliza Livzey Boget, she was born Aug. 29, 1914, on the family farm in Poweshiek County. She was a 1931 graduate of Searsboro High School and attended nursing school at the University of Iowa. She later was employed as a nanny in Detroit and Los Angeles.

She was married to Ross A. Lincoln July 14, 1945, in Chicago. The couple lived at several naval bases prior to moving to a farm in Washington Township. Following her husband's death in 1989, she moved to Grinnell. She moved to St. Francis Manor in 1993 and had been a resident of Winterset Care Center since 1994.

Mrs. Lincoln was a member of the Sugar Creek Garden Club and was a frequent contributor to the Diamond Trail News.

She is survived by two children, Clen of Fort Dodge and Charles of Winterset; one brother, Carl Boget of Grinnell; six grandchildren; and two great-granddaughters.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.
