

OBITUARY.

7-3--1917

Mary C. Lincoln.

Mary C. Lincoln was born to Edward and Elizabeth Lincoln in Washington township, Poweshiek county, Iowa, September 5, 1867, and was called to her eternal home on June 26, 1917.

She lived all her life on the farm where she was born, except the last two years, which were lived on south Main street, Grinnell.

She found her Lord's promise true, "He that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out," and became a member of the Friends church a number of years ago. She was teacher of a Sunday School class at Oak Grove for several years.

Her mother and a brother preceded her to the other shore. She leaves among those who will miss her a father, for whom she kept house since her mother's death in 1907, four brothers, Robert, Edward and Henry of this place, and John C., in East Brady, Pa., with a great many other relatives and friends. She was a good woman and thoughtful of others.

The funeral service was largely attended, which was conducted by Rev. Joseph Sopher, at the Westfield church, June 29, interment was at Westfield cemetery.

"You live for self, you live in vain:
You live for Christ, you live again."
