

George Thomas Logan Jr.

George Thomas Logan Jr., 61, of Grinnell died Wednesday, July 19, at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester, Minn.

Memorial services were held Monday at the United Methodist Church in Stony Point, N.Y., with burial in Mt. Repose Cemetery, Stony Point. A local memorial service will be conducted at a later date.

Memorials in Mr. Logan's name may be made to William Penn College, Oskaloosa.

Mr. Logan was business manager and controller at William Penn and had lived in Grinnell for seven years with his wife, a teacher at Newton High School.

He is survived by his wife of 34 years, Dorothy Dutcher Logan of Grinnell; his mother, Grace Logan of Westwood, N.J.; two sons, Donald of Blackstone, Mass., and Robert of Fairbanks, Alaska; one daughter, Betsy Edwards of Denver, Colo.; a sister, Betty Piucci of Rich-ton Park, Ill.; and one grandson.