

John N. Loux Is Called By Death

²⁻²⁸⁻¹⁹²⁸
Aged 71 years, John Nicholas Loux passed away Sunday at his home, 1533 Spencer street. For over twenty years he had been a cutter in the Morrison-Ricker Glove Factory and was valued as a workman and a man. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this morning from the Catholic church. Burial was in Hazelwood.

Kind Words For John N. Loux

John N. Loux was born in Litzenberg in 1857, and came to this country with his brother when he was seventeen years of age. He lived in New York for about two years and then moved to Iowa where he has lived ever since. He has lived in Grinnell twenty-two years and has been employed at the glove factory since coming here, where he has been well liked and has given highly efficient service. He was courteous, a fine workman and withal a loving friend.

Mr. Loux is survived by his wife, one daughter Mollie Shroeder of Des Moines, a grandson, Gerald Morse of Chicago, one brother, John of New York, and one sister of Osceola, Mrs. Amelia Scheitler. One son, Henry, preceded him in death.
