

H-R April 9, 1987
Mrs. Loveland rites Thursday

Marjorie Loveland, 86, of Waverly, a native of the Grinnell area, died early Tuesday, April 7, at Bartels Lutheran Home in Waverly where she had been a resident since November.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday at the Trinity United Methodist Church in Waverly, with the Rev. L. Duane Churchman officiating. Graveside services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The Kaiser-Corson Funeral

Home of Waverly was in charge of arrangements.

She was the daughter of William and Harriett Porter McKane and was born on July 23, 1900, near Grinnell. She graduated from Northwood High School, then attended Iowa State Teachers College in Cedar Falls where she received her teaching certificate. She had taught in Janesville and had lived in the Waverly area since 1965.

There are no immediate survivors.