

H-R
Mrs. Ludwick
November 14, 1985
rites conducted

Ray
Jennie R. Ludwick, 87, a resident of Friendship Manor for the past 14 months and a longtime resident of the Lynnville and Sully communities, died Friday, Nov. 8, at Friendship Manor.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Garden Chapel Funeral Home in Sully, with the Revs. Sidney Brown and Paul Hare officiating. Burial was in Salem Cemetery south of Lynnville.

~~Memorial~~ contributions may be made to the Church of God or KNWS Christian Radio of Waterloo.

The daughter of K.D. and Grace Jensma Monsma, she was born on Aug. 27, 1898, near Newton and was raised in the Chester community. She was married to Ray Ludwick on Feb. 25, 1918, in the Taintor area. Mr. and Mrs. Ludwick lived south of Lynnville before retiring and moving to Sully.

She is survived by one son, Lloyd of Lynnville; one daughter, Mildred Ratcliff of Sully; a sister, Ena Vander Wilt of Pella; six grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, three brothers and two sisters.