HAMMOND LEVI MARSH

Hammond Levi Marsh, '82, died recently at his home in Wichita, Kans., in his 87th year.

Surviving are his widow, three sons, and two daughters. Funeral services were held in Lahey chapel, the Rev. F. Q. Davidson of the Fairmount Congregational church officiating. Burial was in Memorial Lawns cemetery.

He had lived in Wichita since 1909, having taught school and served in the ministry. During the past 35 years, although handicapped by almost total blindness, he aided in the construction of 70 homes in and near Wichita. For a number of years he served as a trustee of Fairmount college in that city.
