

Good Woman Answers Call

3-8-1927
Mrs. G. W. Mart Passed Away Saturday Afternoon of Pneumonia.

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD MONDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Mart Will Be Greatly Missed by A Wide Circle of Friends.

Mrs. G. W. Mart passed away at 3:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her home, 1008 Main street, after an illness of only a week. An attack of flu, which it had been hoped would not result seriously, developed into pneumonia, which caused her death.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Snyder Bros. parlors conducted by Rev. E. M. Vittum. Interment was in Hazelwood. Pall bearers were F. E. Spaulding, E. H. Spaulding, Roy Terrell, C. K. Needham, Harry Fry and W. J. Nelson.

Mrs. Mart was a friendly woman. She had a smile and a kind word for her friends as she met them on the street or in the Strand theatre, in which she was actively interested. She was kindly and helpful and cheerful. Many friends mourn her loss and will miss her. Her husband, son and daughter have the deepest sympathy of all in their loss.

Mollie Lee Rose Mart was born in Canifton, Ind., Nov. 5, 1858 and moved to Shawneetown, Ill., and there grew to womanhood with three brothers and one sister. Two brothers and several nieces and nephews are still living at Harrisburg, Ill.

Mollie L. Mart and G. W. Mart were united in marriage Oct. 30th, 1879, at Shawneetown, Ill., later moving to Henderson, Ky., where they lived many years. They moved to Grinnell in 1892.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal church early in life. She was active for many years and still holds her membership.

She is survived by her husband and two children, Ethel M. Manly of Mart, shalltown and W. H. Mart of Grinnell.

you and we remember him with deep regard.

MARCH 19-27
Another saddening death is that of Mrs. George W. Mart which occurred Saturday. Mrs. Mart was known here as a kind cordial helpful woman. Those attending the Strand will miss her pleasant genial smile as she took the tickets at the entrance and will remember always the courteous woman whose object was to spread sunshine and to bring joy into human life. The writer has not known Mrs. Mart in her home, but on the street, in the office, at the entrance to the movie shows, she was marvelous in her graciousness and courtesy. Many friends in Grinnell will miss her and deeply mourn her death at an age when she might well have years of helpfulness and gladness before her.

Mollie Lee

G.W.

George