

Aagot Martin services set ^{14-R}

Mar. 24, 1976

Aagot Martin, 83, of Grinnell, formerly of Sioux City, died Friday morning at St. Francis Manor. ³⁻²⁴⁻⁷⁶

Graveside services for Mrs. Martin will be held at 2 p.m. today at Graceland Park Cemetery in Sioux City, with the Rev. James Carpenter, associate pastor of the Morningside Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be at Graceland Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Martin's name may be made to St. Francis Manor.

The daughter of August and Andrea Brevig Wangberg, she was born Aug. 20, 1892, at Sioux City. She attended local schools there. On May 8, 1923, she was married to Pierce Martin at Sioux City. The couple had two daughters. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Martin made their home in Sioux City.

Mrs. Martin was a member of the Morningside Lutheran Church and had been employed by the former Tackleberry Wholesale Grocery Company. She moved to Grinnell in 1965 to be near her daughter, Patricia, and spent summers with her daughter, Frances, in California.

Survivors include her two daughters, Mrs. Virgil ("Pat") Groth of Grinnell and Mrs. Donald C. (Frances) Briden of Redding, Calif., and six grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Pierce, who died in 1949; her parents; two sisters, Mrs. Hans (Marie) Soleglad and Mrs. Royal (Hannah) Smith; and one brother, August Wangberg Jr.
