

Kendall R. Matteson

Kendall R. Matteson, 76, Newton, died Tuesday evening, Aug. 28, at Skiff Medical Center of pneumonia.

A funeral service will be held Friday, Aug. 31, at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton with burial in Newton Memorial Park Cemetery. Memorials in his name may be left at the funeral home.

He was born Jan. 24, 1914, in Grinnell, the son of Bert L. and Weltha Antle Matteson. He was a graduate of Newton Senior High School and had been employed until his retirement in the receiving inspection department at the Maytag Company. He was a United States Army medic in World War II.

He was married to Merriem Kling June 16, 1946 in Newton.

He was a member of United Auto Workers Local #997 Retirees Union.

He is survived by his wife Merriem, Newton; one son David E. Matteson, and three daughters Phyllis Sille, Sandra Matteson and Judy Matteson, all of Newton; six grandchildren and one great grandchild.