Charles E. May Services Held

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home for Charles E. May, 36, who died Thursday evening at a nursing home in West Des Moines following an extended illness.

The Rev. Leslie Warner, pastor of the First Friends Church, officiated at the services. Organist was Mrs. Marvin Nuhnagel.

Pallbearers were Oral Thompson, Clint Clark, Richard Thompson, Ray Pennington, Virgil Johnson and Willie Laymiller.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Mr. May was born July 5, 1892, at Unionville, Mo., and attended the rural schools of that community. He came to Iowa as a young man and lived in the Leon area. He later moved to Grinnell.

He was married to Faye M. Myers at Leon, Iowa. They farmed for some years and then moved into Grinnell where he was employed at Grinnell College. His wife preceded him in death on May 29, 1944.

Mr. May was a member of the Friends Church.

In 1948, Mr. May moved to Des Moines to be near his son and made his home with him.

Survivors include his son Keith of Des Moines; two grandsons—Jim and David May of Des Moines; two great granddaughters—Michelle and Cindy May; and a sister, Mrs. Delpha McDowell of Grinnell.

Mr. May was preceded in death by his wife, his parents, and two brothers, John and Lonnie May.
