

July 23, 1986

LLOYD MELDREM

Lloyd L. Meldrem of Crestline, Ohio, formerly of the Brooklyn-Malcom area passed away July 15 at a hospital in Mansfield, Ohio. He was the son of William and Olive Meldrem.

An Army veteran of World War II, he held membership in the First English Lutheran Church, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion, all in Crestline, Ohio.

Survivors are his two sons, Tom and Ronnie, a daughter, Kathy, daughter-in-law, Gail, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Geneva Tinkle of Barnes City and Edna McCammant of Malcom.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Rebecca on February 29, 1984, his parents and five brothers, two of them in infancy.

Services were held at the Schneider Funeral Home in Crestline, July 18, with military graveside rites.