JAMES ELMER MILBURN.

James Elmer Milburn, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Milburn, was born March 8th 1901, and died February 11, 1907 at his parents' home near Sheridan. Not quite six years had Elmer lived yet all who knew him feel that they have lost a dear friend. Always a patient happy and sunshiny boy at home and at school he was the same during his illness which lasted since New Year's day.

The parents, one brother and three sisters are left to mourn for him and though they do not have him with them they know that the Good Father wanted Elmer to be with the little sister who went to Heaven just three years ago.

The funeral services were held at the home February 14, conducted by Rev. Mr. McMasters of Tama. Four of his school-mates acted as pallbearers and the school attended in a body.

The parents have the sympathy of community in their inestimable loss.
