
CHARLES E. MILLER PASSES

Charles E. Miller, who for many years was a resident of Grinnell and who conducted a drug store in the old Union block on Main street, passed away at his home in Los Angeles June 27. 7-7-1922

Mr. Miller had been failing in health for several years and was very feeble, having become entirely blind. A few days before his death Mrs. Miller had left him to go down stairs to prepare his supper, he attempted to arise from his chair and lost his balance and fell, fracturing his hip. In his weak condition he could not long survive and suffered greatly until the end.

Mr. Miller had reached the ripe age of eighty-eight years and if he had lived until July fourth would have celebrated his sixty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The funeral service was held at the beautiful home at 339 St. Andrews Place, conducted by Dean McCormick of the Los Angeles Episcopal church, on Friday, June 29 at 1:30 p. m.

He was laid to rest in the Hollywood cemetery. The pall bearers were, O. T. Frisbie, C. N. Smith, L. H. Mills, Ed R. Potter, Harry S. Belden, S. Maier.

Mr. Miller leaves to mourn his death his wife, Mrs. Hulda Miller and three daughters, Mrs. Anna Olsen, Mrs. Minnie Allen and Mrs. F. May Stiles.

Mr. Miller conducted a drug store in Montezuma many years. He moved to Grinnell and owned the drug store where Mr. Mullins now is.

Mrs. Miller owned and conducted the china store where Bartling and Nuckolls now are for many years.
