

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN .

... FEB. 8, 1962

Chris J. Miller
Was Veteran Of
First World War

Funeral services and burial for Chris J. Miller, 65, were in Milford, Nebr., Monday. He was a veteran of WW I and lived at the Dewey Sweny nursing home following release from the Veterans Administration hospital, Knoxville, about 4 1/2 years ago. Death called him early Feb. 1.

Survivors include his estranged wife, Red Oak; a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Erickson, Minneapolis, Minn.; two sons, Robert of New York, and Jack, Sioux Falls, S. D.; two brothers, Ed Miller, Ojus, Fla., and Sam, Milford; four sisters, Mrs. Frank Morfield, Milford, who made the funeral arrangements, and three others; 12 grandchildren, and many nephews and nieces.

Chris was a regular attendant at the meetings and picnics of Community Barracks No. 2326, World War I Veterans, and participated in the order's business program.