

2:23 a. m. Rate for round trip, $8.58, or as low as any other line. Tickets good on all trains. 8-17-1900 40-5

—Clarence Eugene Miller was born in Genoa Bluffs, Iowa county, Iowa, May 11th, 1866, and died in Malcom, Monday, Aug. 13, at 10 p. m., aged 34 years. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Mackay, assisted by Rev. Mr. Vanschoelack. The services at the grave were in charge of the Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member, and his remains interred in Malcom cemetery. He had been a sufferer four years, but had hopes of recovery up to the last three months. Two weeks ago he was taken to his bed, from which he never arose. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Miller, four brothers and two sisters to mourn the loss.