

Rites Held Monday For Mrs. Miller

(FRANK)

Funeral services were held at the Brooklyn Presbyterian church Monday afternoon for Mrs. Effa Marie Miller, 81, lifelong area resident, who died Friday at a Belle Plaine nursing home.

Rev. George Roquet and Rev. Robert Cutbirth of the Hartwick Congregational church officiated and burial was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery, Brooklyn.

Bearers were Willis, Richard, Frank and James Miller, David Maxwell and James Hurd. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist and flowers were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Korn and Mr. and Mrs. Al Voelkel.

Mrs. Miller, daughter of Claus and Josephine Carlson, was born August 26, 1886 in Madison township.

She and her husband Frank, whom she married in 1908, were parents of five children—Theodore of Belle Plaine, Frances Maxwell of Deep River, Irene Hurd of Omaha, Neb., Elver of Hartwick and Mrs. Abel (Lois) Dory of Brooklyn. Her husband and a son, Paul, preceded her in death.

Mrs. Miller, a member of the Hartwick Congregational church, Rebekah Lodge and CWW Club, is also survived by 21 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.
