

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN . . . NOVEMBER 30, 1967

Linn Miller Rites Nov. 16 In New Sharon

Funeral services for Linn O. Miller were Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16, at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon. The Rev. Jerry Brown and the Rev. Harold Chute officiated. May McVay provided organ music.

Casket bearers were Max Whitehead, Art Fox, Arthur Walters, Lloyd Bowers, Henry Klein and Charles Lindhorst. Flower attendants were Mrs. Arthur Walters, Mrs. Mabel McGriff, Mrs. John Bowling and Mrs. Clara Caurne.

Burial was in Friends Cemetery at New Sharon.

Linn O. Miller, son of Michael Amos and Frances (Craver) Miller, was born March 9, 1878, in Poweshiek County. He passed away Nov. 14, at the Mahaska Hospital, Oska-loosa, at the age of 89.

He married Neola C. Saunders in 1905 at Forest Home, Iowa. They made their home on the Joe Robinson farm in the southwest corner of Poweshiek County north of New Sharon.

In 1946 they moved to New Sharon when he retired from farm work.

As the result of a bad fall, Mr. Miller had been a semi-invalid for 17 years. He had been a patient at the Mahaska and Iowa City hospitals and had made his home at the