

Marie Miller

(CLYDE)

Marie Tish Miller, 92, of Heritage Manor in Newton, a former Kellogg resident, died Monday, July 3, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at Reese Chapel in Newton, with the Rev. Jerry Brown, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in West Liberty Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Preston and Annie Watson Tish and was born Nov. 29, 1896, near New Sharon. She attended Poweshiek County schools.

She was married to Clyde Miller Nov. 23, 1913, at Searsboro. Mrs. Miller lived in the Searsboro area until moving to Kellogg in 1932. She had been a resident of Heritage Manor since 1977.

Surviving are a son, Claire of Kellogg; one daughter, Esther Barr of Newton; 17 grandchildren; 40 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; four sons, Floyd, Lloyd, Ivan and one in infancy; and two brothers.

MARIE MILLER

The Register's Iowa News Service

NEWTON, IA. — Services for Marie Miller, 92, of Newton, and formerly of Kellogg, will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Reese Funeral Home. Burial will be in West Liberty Cemetery in Searsboro. She died Monday of a heart ailment at Skiff Medical Center here.

Mrs. Miller was born near New Sharon and moved to Kellogg in 1932, where she worked at Midwest Manufacturing Co. until retiring. She was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church.

Survivors include a son, Claire of Kellogg; a daughter, Esther Barr of Newton; 17 grandchildren; 40 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be at the funeral home after 2 p.m. today, where the family will receive friends from 7 to 3 p.m.

~~Des Moines Register~~

RECEIVED JULY 4, 1989
NEWTON, IOWA
CLIPPING SERVICE