

Mrs. J. S. Miller 5-10-14<sup>39</sup> Is Buried Here

Nettie Walsh was born in Athens, Ohio, January 31, 1857 and died at Rochester, Minn., May 7, 1929 aged 72 years, 3 months and 6 days. She came to Iowa with her father's family in 1860 and settled on a farm near Newton. On December 21, 1884 she was united in marriage to J. S. Miller who died in September 1926. One daughter also preceded her in death. She is survived by a son, Joseph W. Miller of Chicago and one granddaughter.

Mrs. Miller has made her home in Grinnell for thirty-three years and during that time gained warm personal friends who sincerely mourn her departure. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church, being a member of the Official Board and served as Communion Steward for many years. It was her pleasure to prepare for the Communion Service and her last conversation with the pastor before going away was to ask if it would interfere with any arrangements for a Communion Service.

Mrs. Miller did not burden her friends with her trouble but kept matters to herself. During her husband's illness she did not spare herself in caring for him and the responsibility she carried at that time undermined her own strength more than she realized.

Funeral services were held at the home on Thursday afternoon in charge of the Rev. George Blagg. The hymn, "I heard the voice of Jesus say," was sung by Mrs. Chas. Laros and Mrs. Roscoe Dempster. Pallbearers were, Messrs. Frank Knight, Frank P. Marvin, Will Nelson, George Armentrout, Will Alley, Dell Snook. Burial was made in Hazelwood.
