Doris ~~Mailander~~ MILLS

Doris Mills Mailander, 77, of the Polk City Health Center, formerly of Marshalltown and Gilman, died following a stroke Saturday, July 11, at Mercy Hospital Medical Center in Des Moines.

A memorial service was conducted Wednesday at the Gilman Community Church. Burial of the urn was in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Estel-Perren-Avey Funeral Home of Marshalltown in charge of arrangement.

She was the daughter of Lewis Miles and Nora Elizabeth Lehman Coppock, she was born Feb. 10, 1921, in Gilman. She received her education in the Gilman School District.

While residing in Gilman, she was church custodian and in charge of ringing the bell. Her husband, Donald Mailander, was chief of police and the water department and in charge of the cemetery there.

Surviving are four children, David Mills Jr. of Des Moines, Donna Culp of Des Moines, Diane Moural of Indianola and Doris Fasching of Spirit Lake; nine grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one daughter, Dixie Lee Brown; two brothers, Frank and Ralph Coppock; and one sister, Iva Honeycutt.

Correction

An obituary in the July 16 edition incorrectly identified the husband of the decedent, Doris Mailander. He was David Mills, formerly chief of police in Gilman. H.R.
