

Tuesday, September 1, 1960

Rites Friday For Former Resident, Myrtle Millslagle

Mrs. Myrtle Millslagle, 71, former resident of Grinnell, died Tuesday morning following a lingering illness at Ithaca, New York, where she had made her home for the past few years.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. C. E. Kingsley, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Organist will be Mrs. Rhee Auman.

Pallbearers will be Don Bailey, Albert Bryan, George Hargrave, Dick Potts, Bill Welsh and Jim Webb. Interment will be in Hazelwood cemetery.

She was the daughter of Robert and Alvareta McCoy and was born on Oct. 31st 1888 in Grinnell. She received her education from the Grinnell public schools and had lived in Grinnell most of her life until moving to Ithaca.

Mrs. Millslagle is survived by a daughter and son, Mrs. Hazel Wray of Ithaca and Fred Millslagle of Rochester, N. Y.; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rex Millslagle of Grinnell; three grandchildren and three great grandchildren; a brother, R. H. McCoy of Houston, Tex.; and a sister, Mrs. Charles Pope of Medford, Ore.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two sons, Max, who died in infancy in 1911, Rex in 1953; and one brother.