

H-R June 10 1979
Lloyd Mincer dies at 68

Lloyd Mincer, 68, a former Searsboro resident, died May 15 at Doctors Hospital, Lakewood, Calif., it has been learned.

He was the son of the late Earl and Mary Mincer of Searsboro, and was born April 29, 1911.

A railroad worker, Mr. Mincer had been employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad in Los Angeles, Calif., since 1951.

He was married to Frances McDowell of Searsboro in 1933. The couple had four children.

Survivors include his wife; his children, Gerald of Merced, Calif., Ronald of San Juan Capistrano, Calif., Beverly of El Sigundo, Calif., and Shirley of Lakewood, Calif.; eight grandchildren; and a brother.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother.