Mrs. B. A. Mitchell Dies In Lynnville

(By a Staff Correspondent).

Lynnville, Ia., Nov. 26, Special:

Funeral services for Mrs. B. A. Mitchell, who died Thursday evening about 7 o'clock from heart disease, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence. Rev. L. W. Reynolds conducted the services at the house. The Rebekah lodge had charge of services at the Woodland Cemetery. Music was furnished by Mrs. Leo Davis, Mrs. Will Allee, Rev. L. W. Reynolds and Arthur Cope. Pallbearers were Roy Younkin, A. L. Renaud, Jerry Jones, Wm. Burnham, Robert Conn, Lewis Perry.

Mrs. Edna Mitchell was the youngest daughter of William P. and Angeline Sparks and was born Dec. 17, 1883. She spent the greater share of her life in and around Lynnville, with the exception of a few years when she made her home in Searsboro.

She was united in marriage to B. A. Mitchell on Jan. 17, 1906. To this union were born four children, Frank Mitchell, J. W. Mitchell, Arthur Mitchell and one who died in infancy. She is survived by her three children, her husband, two step-children, Earl Mitchell and Mrs. Dottie Ingraham, seven sisters and five brothers.
