Raymond William Mithelman
(By Rev. Wiegand)

Raymond William Mithelman, son of Josie, nee Puls, and her husband, the late Herman Mithelman, was born Feb. 2, 1908, in Malcom township, Poweshiek county, Iowa.

As an infant he was presented to his Lord in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism at Trinity Lutheran church. After being instructed in God's Word he renewed for himself the vows made for him in his baptism in the rite of confirmation.

On Nov. 15, 1933, he was united in holy matrimony with Miss Hazel Van Cleve at Trinity Lutheran church. God blessed this union with three daughters, Karen, Constance, and Donna.

Ray, as he was known to his friends, was always active and interested in the affairs of the church. As a youth he was a member of the Luther League. Later he served when called upon as a member of the Church Council.

He was a member of the Brotherhood and was a past president of that organization; he was a member of the Eden League and also a past president of that organization. He was also a member of the Men's Bible Class.

When the Boy Scout Troop was organized at Trinity he became chairman of the troop committee, a position he held at the time of his departure.
