

Elizabeth A. Montgomery (M17 X)

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, Jan. 30, in the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn for Mrs. Elizabeth A. Montgomery, 59, of Brooklyn, who died in her home Tuesday, Jan. 27, 1998, of a sudden illness.

The Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom officiated and the organist was Anedra Sherwood. Flower attendants were Vickie Kelley, Martina Korn, Betty Price and Debbie Olson. Casket bearers were Jim Dore, Gregory Fowler, Mike Montgomery, Craig Lang, Jeff Jones and Craig Northhouse. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Elizabeth Ann Fowler Montgomery, daughter of Earl Frank Fowler and Mary Vivian Stone Fowler, was born Sept. 12, 1938, in Grinnell.

She received her education in Grinnell, graduating from high school in 1956. She was a graduate of the University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls. On Aug. 5, 1960, she was married to Max S. Montgomery in Grinnell. Since that time they have lived most of their life in Brooklyn, and for many years they owned and operated Montgomery TV and Appliance.

Mrs. Montgomery was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn. She was active in the Community of Flags project. She enjoyed cooking, quilting, crafts, travel, and their home at Lake Ponderosa.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Genevieve Fowler. Survivors include her husband, Max Montgomery of Brooklyn and one brother, Frank Fowler of Grinnell.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services was in charge of arrangements. A memorial fund has been established.

Elizabeth Montgomery, 59

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Montgomery, 59, of Brooklyn, died in her home Tuesday, January 27, 1998.

Funeral services were Friday, January 30, 1998 in the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn. Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom officiated.

The organist was Anedra Sherwood and flower attendants were Vickie Kelley, Martina Korn, Betty Price and Debbie Olson.

Casket bearers were Jim Dore, Gregory Fowler, Mike Montgomery, Craig Lang, Jeff Jones and Craig Northhouse.

Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Elizabeth Ann Fowler Montgomery, daughter of Earl Frank Fowler and Mary Vivian Stone Fowler, was born September 12, 1938 in Grinnell, Iowa.

She received her education in Grinnell, graduating from high school in 1956. She was a graduate of the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls. On August 5, 1960, she married Max S. Montgomery in Grinnell. Since that time, they lived most of their lives in Brooklyn and, for many years, owned and operated Montgomery TV and Appliance.

Elizabeth was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn. She was active in the Community of Flags project and she enjoyed cooking, quilting, crafts and travel. She also enjoyed the home at Lake Ponderosa she shared with her husband.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Genevieve Fowler.

Survivors include her husband, Max Montgomery of Brooklyn and one brother, Frank Fowler of Grinnell.

A memorial fund in her name has been established.

Elizabeth Montgomery

Elizabeth Montgomery, 59, of Brooklyn died of a sudden illness Tuesday, Jan. 27, at her home.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, with the Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom officiating. Burial will be in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Earl and Mary Stone Fowler, she was born Sept. 12, 1938, in Grinnell. She received her education in Grinnell, graduating from high school in 1956. She was also a graduate of the University of Northern Iowa.

She was married to Max S. Montgomery Aug. 5, 1960, in Grinnell. They lived in Brooklyn and owned and operated Montgomery TV and Appliance.

Mrs. Montgomery was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and was active in the Community of Flags project.

Surviving are her husband and one brother, Frank Fowler of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Genevieve Fowler.

A memorial fund has been established.

BC February 9, 1998

MR February 4, 1998

H-R January 29, 1998