MILTON F. MAACK

Milton F. Maack was born Dec. 7, 1909 at the home of his parents in Lincoln Township, Iowa County, Iowa, the son of John H. and Dorris (Von Hollen) Maack.

Milton attended grade school in Victor and later graduated from the Victor High School in 1928. He attended the Immanuel Methodist church rural Victor where he was confirmed and later for over 30 years he served as the church treasurer and also taught Sunday School for many years. Later, when the two churches merged he became a member of the Victor Methodist church until 1976 when he transferred his membership to St. Paul's Methodist Church in Williamsburg.

He was also a member of the Corinthian Lodge No. 174 A.F. and A.M. in Brooklyn and also a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Milton was united in marriage to Cornelia Fritz on Oct. 26, 1940 at the Methodist Church at Bunker Hill, Ill. After their marriage they moved to a farm in Lincoln Township where they lived until moving to Williamsburg on March 25, 1981.

He had been in ill health for the last two years with cancer and had been a patient at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City the last several days. He died at the age of 76 Sunday evening, July 13, 1986.

He is survived by his wife Cornelia; one foster son, Thomas and his wife Mary of Bettendorf, Ia.; three foster grandchildren: Kristin, Kelley and Thomas Jr.; a brother Arthur and his wife Emma Mary of Lstant, Ill., and two sisters, Pearl and Esther Maack of Williamsburg.

He was preceded in death by his father on May 3, 1963 and his mother on Dec. 19, 1965.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 16, 1986 at 10 a.m. at the Uhlmann Funeral Home in Williamsburg with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery in Williamsburg.
