Horace C. Macy on Nov. 7, 1900. To them were born two sons, L. H. Macy of Hollywood, Calif., and R. S. Macy of Iowa City. Besides these she leaves six grandchildren and one great grandson. Soon after coming to Lynnville, Anna Macy joined the Friends church here and remained a loyal member until her death. For years she was a faithful teacher of little children and was dearly loved by them all. She was actively interested in all the work of the church and community. She had a wonderful capacity for friendship and was always taking thought for the needs and burdens of those around her. All who knew her found the meaning of true friendship as expressed in these lines, "Oh the comfort, the inexpressible comfort, of feeling that you have neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but pouring them all out, chaff and grain together, that a faithful hand will sift them, take what is worth keeping and with the breath of kindness blow the rest away."

Anna T. Macy passed away Wednesday evening, Jan. 28th in the home of her son, Reuben Macy in Iowa City. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 31 in the Friends church in charge of Rev. L. Willard Reynolds of Earlham, her former pastor, assisted by Rev. Andrew Stuart. Mrs. Carrie Quire accompanied Mrs. Will Allee and Mrs. Harvey Gause who sang, "Have Thine Own Way," and "In The Garden." The floral offerings were in charge of Mrs. Vern Ratcliff and Mrs. Stanley Millhouse. Pallbearers were Will Allee, Orland Davis, Harvey Gause, Harold F. Macy, Harold Ratcliff, Marshall Meredith. Interment was in Friends cemetery, and among those here from a distance for the services were Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Macy and Jim, and Arthur Allee of Iowa City, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, Mrs. Will Meredith and two daughters of Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagaman of Dysart, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagaman of Marshalltown, Mrs. Harlan Macy of Grinnell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oswandel, their son-in-law and daughter of Oskaloosa, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rohdanz of Kilduff and Mrs. L.
