

Monday, March 25, 1963

Carrol O. Macy, Prominent Area Resident, Dies

Services for C. O. Macy, 70, of Newton, longtime resident of the Lynnville-Sully area, were held this afternoon (Monday) at the First Congregational church in Newton.

Mr. Macy died Friday night at an Iowa City hospital. He was operator of the Macy Stockyards at Sully and vice-president of the First State Bank of Lynnville. He moved to Newton from the Lynnville-Sully area about five years ago.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Richard Schroeder, pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodland cemetery at Lynnville. Masonic Grand Lodge officers of Iowa conducted graveside services.

The son of Charles and Anna Newby Macy, he was born at Lynnville on August 2, 1892. On April 10, 1916, at Oskaloosa, he was united in marriage with Vivian Hull.

He is survived by his widow, Vivian; a son, Bryce O. Macy of Sully; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Sorlien of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Karl Pedersen of San Jose, Calif.; and six grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Dr. Willis Macy in 1934 and Dr. Ward Macy in 1962.

Mr. Macy was a member of the First Congregational church, the Lynnville Lodge No. 227, AF and AM, Consistory, Kaaba Shrine Temple, B.P.O. Elks, and Sully Lions Club.

He was a past grand officer of the Masons in Iowa and a member of the Sully board of education for many years. He was a 1914 graduate of Grinnell College.