

William Macy Of Lynnville, 1921 Passes Away

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Lynnville, Ia., Oct. 11. Special: William Macy, son of Calvin and Cyrena Macy, was born at Lynnville August 17, 1874, and departed this life Monday afternoon, Oct. 3, at 3:30 o'clock. Death was due to heart disease. In his youth he accompanied his parents to Independence, Kansas, where he grew to manhood.

He was united in marriage to Hettie Almeda Wilkey, March 19, 1893. To this union were born four children. Dole Sylvester Macy of Oskaloosa, Vera Macy Kayser, Aletha Wilkey Macy and Anna Ruth Macy all of Lynnville.

Mr. Macy, a birthright member of the Friends church, was an active Sunday school worker, having taught the boys' Sunday school class of the high school for a number of years.

He is survived by his wife, four children, two grandchildren, Herbert Charles Macy and Macy Jane Kayser of Lynnville, two sisters, Mrs. Ora Harris of Melba, Idaho, and Mrs. Effie Hadley of Independence, Kansas, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Giles Youngquist Wednesday morning at the Friends church. Music was furnished by the male quartet composed of Harlan Meredith, Wallace Williams, Lloyd Dixon and Charles Wagaman, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. F. Quire. Pall bearers were Charles Russell, Elmer Gause, Harlan Meredith, Harold Macy, George Renaud and Harlan Macy. Burial was in the Friends cemetery in the family lot.
