

James Main, 17, ¹⁰/₂ Services Friday ⁷¹

James Main, 17, of Rte. 2, Malcom, died Tuesday, Oct. 5, at University Hospital in Iowa City where he had been a patient for the past month.

The son of Millard and Kathryn McKeag Main, he was born March 11, 1954, at Grinnell. He had attended the Brooklyn schools and at the time of his death was a member of the senior class at B-G-M High School. He had lived in the Madison community until the first of this year when his parents moved to a farm southwest of Malcom.

He was active in athletics and was manager of the B-G-M football team. He played basketball. James was also a member of the F.F.A. and attended the Madison Church of Christ.

He is survived by his parents, his sister Miriam, his aunt, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James McKeag and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Main, as well as his uncle Earl.

Should friends desire, memorial contributions may be made to the Hodgkins' Disease Research Foundation.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 8, at the Madison Church of Christ with the Rev. Kenneth Siemens officiating. Burial will be in the Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. The James-Schalinske Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Organist will be Mrs. Jack Lang, and vocalist will be Joan Montgomery. Serving on the flower committee are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wood. Pallbearers include Jerry Roberts, John Gearhart, Harry Christofferson, Lyle Oswood, Larry Dayton and Jack Lang. Honorary pallbearers are Kenneth Johnson, Steve Hanssen, Roy Steffen, Bob Steffen, Dean Roth and Larry Ford.