—The remains of John W. Main, who was killed by the explosion of a gas pipe in a restaurant in Los Angeles, were buried at his old home at Searsboro Friday afternoon. The funeral was held from the Friends church conducted by the Rev. E. M. Gregson. The Masonic lodge of Lynnville, of which the deceased was a member, had charge of the burial and the remains were laid beside those of his father in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. An aged mother and three brothers, Aaron and Jacob of Searsboro, W. P. Main of Valley Junction and two sisters, Mrs. John Allender of Rago, Kas., and Mrs. John Fleener of Searsboro remain to mourn the loss of a kind and loving son and brother. They have the sympathy of all their acquaintances.
