

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN

. . . .NOV. 5, 1964

Malcolm Funeral Held Monday In Deep River

^{di} (Earl)

The funeral of Josie Mae Malcom was held at 2 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2, at the Deep River Methodist Church with Rev. William Morehouse conducting the service. Mrs. Clint Icenbice played special organ selections. The Steffy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Interment was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River. Casket bearers were Ralph Peters, Oliver Moore, Kenneth Bushong, Vaughn Hopwood, William Bushong, and Gerald Baustian.

Josie Mae, daughter of Jonas and Paulina Toppin was born near Montezuma on Oct. 8, 1884, at 80 years of age.

On Sept. 30, 1902, she was united in marriage with Earl Otis Malcolm. To this union, two children were born, William Wesley and Mabel Estella Holdsworth. Mabel passed away in 1947. Mr. Malcom died in 1951. Mrs. Malcom maintained her home in Deep River until about two years ago when her health failed and she moved to a nursing home in What Cheer to be cared for.

She is survived by her son, seven grandchildren and several great grandchildren.