

Thomas M. S.

Pioneer Of County Dies In California

6-1-1926

Mrs. Thomas Manatt, former resident of Brooklyn, passed away May 1th, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Manatt was 89 years of age, and a native of Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Manatt were among the pioneers to settle in Poweshiek county, their first home being built three miles east of Brooklyn seventy years ago. Later the Manatts moved from the farm into Brooklyn and entered the mercantile business. Mr. Manatt passed away nine years ago and now his loving companion has gone to join him in that land of peace and rest.
