Coe H. Manatt

Coe H. Manatt Rites Wednesday

Coe Manatt, lifelong Brooklyn resident, passed away Oct. 8 at Grinnell Community hospital after several years of failing health.

Funeral services were held in Grace Methodist church Oct. 10, conducted by the Rev. C.W. Woollard, pastor of the church. Organ music was by Leo Shuler.

Burial was in the family plot in I.O.O.F. cemetery. Casket bearers were Floyd McAllister, Warren Carpenter, Walter Wagner, Richard Williams, Robert Williams and Leffert McIrath.

In charge of flowers were Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. James Barclay and Mrs. Richard Williams.

Coe H. Manatt was born in Brooklyn, May 13, 1881, the son of William and Roxann Manatt. He attended Brooklyn schools and then joined his father in the business of farm management and general real estate operation, chiefly in Poweshiek county.

Mr. Manatt was united in marriage to Nellie Jones Sept. 11, 1906, and they spent their entire married life in Brooklyn.

He was a member of Corinthian Lodge 174, AF&AM, Des Moines Consistory Scottish Rite and Za Ga Zig Temple Shrine.

Preceding him in death were his mother and father, one brother and three sisters. Surviving are his widow and his eldest sister, Mrs. Lola M. Cardell, of Wesley Acres, Des Moines.

Coe Manatt was one of the community's best known and respected citizens. Throughout his long career in Brooklyn and the surrounding area, his great interest was in the development and progress of agriculture.

Among out-of-town relatives and friends attending the service were R.C. Manatt of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones, Mrs. F.A. Fields and Mrs. Louine Lorey of Des Moines; Cliff Strasser and Mrs. Barbara Hudson of What Cheer; Will, Harry, Earl and David Jones and Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Fawcett of Williamsburg; E.W. McNeil of Montezuma; Mrs. Thelma Crisswell, Mrs. Esther Fleener, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Lindenmayer, Rev. and Mrs. S.J. Epler, Hugh Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ryan of Grinnell; Mr. and Mrs. Uri Sult of Gilman; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thomas of Perry; Earl and Kathleen Carpenter of Ames; and Carol Carpenter of Iowa City.
