OBITUARY.

MRS. WESLEY MANATT.

After a long period of suffering Mrs. Wesley Manatt passed away Friday morning. While the end was expected, it came as a shock and a great grief to her large circle of friends, who had constantly hoped against hope for her complete restoration to health.

Few people have been known and loved as has Mrs. Manatt. Both at Brooklyn, where she lived earlier years of her life and at Grinnell, which for nearly two decades has been her home, her cheery disposition, sympathy and helpfulness have encouraged many a friend and brightened the life of every one who came in touch with her.

The funeral Sunday attested the love of all, and the swarm of friends gave tribute to the depth of their affection.

Her husband and two sons have the assurance that a true, earnest and helpful life has gone out, and in the years that pass the loving fragrance of her memory will be a blessing to all who have known and loved her.
