

Margaret Marcinik

Margaret E. Marcinik, 81, of Grinnell, formerly of Clermont, Fla., died Monday, July 29, at St. Francis Manor.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated Thursday at the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Clermont, with burial at Oak Hill Cemetery there.

The daughter of Charles F. and Margaret Arnett Hauer, she was born Sept. 30, 1920, in Latrobe, Pa., where she was raised and educated.

She was married to Carl Lewis Marcinik June 27, 1938, in Cumberland, Md., and they continued to live in Latrobe until moving to Woodberry, N.J., in 1963. They retired to Clermont in 1993.

She had been a resident of St. Francis Manor since March of this year. She was a retired production worker with the 3M Corporation in the electronic components division.

Surviving are five children, Roger of Palm Bay, Fla., Carol Young of Sacramento, Calif., Carl of Billings, Mont., Tom of Grinnell and Dr. Margaret Marcinik of Hatfield, Pa.; two sisters, Alice Stuzmann of Inverness, Fla., and Ruth Snyder of Mebane, N.C.; 15 grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren.

Her husband preceded her in death.
