Rites held for Gladys Moore

Gladys M. Moore, 71, of 1707½ Seventh Ave., Grinnell, died Sunday, Feb. 12, at Marshalltown Manor nursing home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert C. Smith of the Grinnell First Baptist Church officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Delmar Davis, Lyle Davis, Edward Moore, Gary Moore, Marvin Moore and Richard Moore.

Burial was in Sheeley Cemetery southwest of Montezuma.

The daughter of Albert V. and Harriet Ann Gillespie Freshour, she was born near Mount Pleasant on Oct. 29, 1912. She attended rural school.

She was married to Mose Abner Moore on Aug. 29, 1930, at Oskaloosa. They farmed near Barnes City, New Sharon and Montezuma before moving to Malcom.

Following her husband's death in 1964, Mrs. Moore moved to Grinnell. She was a member of the Pythian Sisters, the Merry Widows Card Club and the Grinnell Senior Citizens Kitchen Band. She had been employed at Meeker's Laundry and the Grinnell College Food Service before retiring.

Survivors include her children, John A. Moore of Malcom, Erma Curry of Grinnell, and Raymond W. Moore of Grinnell; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; two brothers, Walter Freshour of Morrison, Colo., and Gordon Freshour of San Francisco, Calif.; and two sisters, Jennie Mae Anderson of New Sharon and Jessie M. Guertkirk of Yucca Valley, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and two brothers, William Freshour and Harry Freshour.
