

Esther Moredock

Esther Hockey Moredock, 88, of Heritage Manor Care Center in Newton, formerly of rural Grinnell, died at the care center Saturday, Dec. 10, Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. Syd McCroney, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Newton, officiating. Burial was in Newton Memorial Park Cemetery.

The daughter of James H. and Susie Anna Good Hockey, she was born Oct. 31, 1906, in Montezuma. She attended Montezuma schools.

She was married to Albert I. Moredock Nov. 22, 1945, in Newton.

Mrs. Moredock had worked at Maytag and retired from Midwest Manufacturing in Kellogg. She had lived on a farm in rural Grinnell prior to moving to Newton in 1983. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary in Grinnell.

Surviving are one son, Delmar J. Nagel of Fulton, Ill.; one daughter, Rowena M. Constant of Newton; and a brother, Kenneth Hockey of Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two brothers, Jake and Walter Hockey; and two sisters, Mabel Boren and Genieva Tish.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Heritage Manor Care Center Activity Fund.

(Albert)

December 15, 1997