

Robert M. Morgan, 90

Robert M. Morgan, 90, of rural Montezuma, died Sunday morning, April 14, 1996, in the Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 17, 1996, in the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. Rev. William B. Daylong, pastor, officiated. The organist was Anita Ormiston and soloist was Calvin Roudabush with music selections of "How Great Thou Art" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rinehart and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Arvidson. Honorary casket bearers were Eldon Burns, Stan Schlabach, Howard Johnston and Tom Van Ervelde. Casket bearers were Terry Osborne, David Morgan, Chris Morgan, Scott Morgan, Cory Hall, David Keller, Pat Douglas, Dale Douglas and Kevin Jahlas. Burial was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Robert Menzo Morgan was born on Aug. 8, 1905, in Guernsey, Iowa, the son of Augustus O. and Winnifred Nickerson Morgan. He received his education at Montezuma and then worked as a farm hand. On Feb. 6, 1929, he was married to Virginia

Elizabeth Lytle in her mother's home in Brooklyn. They farmed in Scott Township from 1929 to 1936 when they moved to their present farm. Mrs. Morgan died May 3, 1989. He was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. For many years he was a 4-H leader, was active in the Farm Bureau, and served two years with the National Guard.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, two sisters, one brother, one daughter-in-law, one step great-granddaughter, and one grandson-in-law.

Robert is survived by his daughter, Betty Osborne and her husband, Richard of Brooklyn; two sons, Mervin of Grinnell and Gene and his wife, Joyce, of Brooklyn; two sisters: Eunice Shippey and Neola Peters of Montezuma; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; seven step-great-grandchildren; and one step-great-great-grandson.

Memorials may be made to the East Poweshiek Ambulance Service and may be left with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home.

Robert Morgan

Robert Morgan, 90, rural Montezuma, died Sunday, April 14, 1996, in Brookhaven Nursing Home, Brooklyn.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, April 17, in Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, with the Rev. William B. Daylong, pastor, officiating. Organ music was by Anita Ormiston and vocal music by Calvin Roudabush. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rinehart and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Arvidson. Pallbearers were Terry Osborne, David Morgan, Chris Morgan, Scott Morgan, Cory Hall, David Keller, Pat Douglas, Dale Douglas and Kevin Jahlas. Honorary pallbearers were Eldon Burns, Stan Schlabach, Howard Johnston and Tom Van Ervelde. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the East Poweshiek Ambulance Service and may be left at Nevenhoven Funeral Home.

The son of Augustus O. and Winnifred A. Nickerson Morgan, Robert Menzo Morgan was born Aug. 8, 1905. He received his education in Montezuma and then worked as a farm hand. On Feb. 6, 1929, he was married to Virginia Elizabeth Lytle in her mother's home in Brooklyn. They farmed in Scott Township from 1929 to 1936 before moving to their home near Montezuma.

He was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. He was for many years a 4-H leader, was active in the Farm Bureau and served for two years with the National Guard.

He is survived by his daughter Betty Osborne, Brooklyn; two sons Mervin Morgan, Grinnell, and Gene Morgan, Brooklyn; two sisters, Eunice Shippey and Neola Peters, both of Montezuma; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; seven step-great-grandchildren; and one step-great-great-grandson.

M R Apr. 17, 1996

Robert M. Morgan

BC April 17, 1996

Robert M. Morgan, 90, of rural Montezuma, died Sunday morning April 14 at Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Services for Mr. Morgan will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 17, in the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. Rev. William B. Daylong will be officiating.

The organist will be Anita Ormiston and the soloist will be Calvin Roudabush. Special selections will be "How Great Thou Art", and "Old Rugged Cross." Flower attendants will be Shirley and Robert Rinehart and Shirley and Ron Arvidson. Honorary casket-bearers will be Eldon Burns, Stan Schlabach, Howard Johnston, and Tom Van Ervelde. Casket-bearers will be Terry Osborne, David Morgan, Chris Morgan, Scott Morgan, Cory Hall, David Keller, Pat Douglas, Dale Douglas and Kevin Jahlas. Interment will be in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established for the East Poweshiek Ambulance Service and may be left with the Nevenhoven Funeral Home.

Robert Menzo Morgan, son of Augustus O. and Winnifred Nickerson Morgan, was born at Guernsey, Aug. 8, 1905.

Mr. Morgan received his education at Montezuma and then worked as a farm hand. On Feb. 6, 1929 he was married to Virginia Elizabeth Lytle in her mother's home in Brooklyn. They farmed in Scott Township from 1929 to 1936 when they moved to their present farm. Mrs. Morgan died May 3, 1989.

Mr. Morgan was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church. For many years he was a 4-H leader, was active in the Farm Bureau, and served two years with the National Guard.

Surviving are his daughter, Betty Osborne and her husband, Richard, of Brooklyn; two sons, Mervin of Grinnell and Gene and wife, Joyce, of Brooklyn; two sisters, Eunice Shippey and Neola Peters of Montezuma; six grandchildren; four great grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; seven step-great-grandchildren; and one step-great-great-grandson.

He was preceded by his parents, his wife, two sisters, one brother, one daughter-in-law, and one step-great-granddaughter.