

John Morrison Services Set ^{10/21/72}

^{H-12}
John Arthur Morrison, 71, of 531 Sixteenth Ave., East Moline, Ill., died late Saturday evening at Illini Hospital in Silvis, Ill., after a brief illness.

The son of James and Mary McQuinn Morrison, he was born near Malcom April 28, 1901. He attended the Malcom public schools and later farmed in the Malcom area. He moved to Moline, Ill., and had been employed at the International Harvester Company as a welder in the firm's combine and corn picker plants for over 26 years. Following his retirement, he continued to make his home in East Moline. Earlier in his life he was a member of the Grinnell Elks Lodge and in recent years was a member of the United Auto Workers union at the International Harvester plant.

He is survived by his sisters, Mrs. Delmar (Dorothy) Hanssen of Grinnell and Mrs. John (Hazel) Nohring of Malcom. He was preceded in death by his parents and an infant sister, Stella Mary Morrison.

Services for Mr. Morrison will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Organist will be Mrs. Willard Heffner. Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Rites Held for John Morrison

^{10/28/72}
Funeral services for John Arthur Morrison, 71, of 531 Sixteenth Ave., East Moline, Ill., who died Saturday evening in Silvis, Ill., were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Willard Heffner. Pallbearers included Kenneth Adkins, Harry Bitcon, George Morrison, Laverne Morrison, William R. Morrison, and Bert F. Wells.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.