

February 19, 2002

13C February 20, 2002

Jean Moyer, 74

Jean Moyer, 74, of rural Gilman, died February 14, at her home following a lengthy illness, under the care of Grinnell Regional Hospice.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Feb. 19, at 1:30 p.m. at Harrison-Kruse-Phillips Funeral Home in Tama with Rev. Dr. E.W. Meads officiating. Interment was at the Oak Hill Cemetery, Tama. A memorial fund has been established.

She was born on June 18, 1927, in Tama, the daughter of Lyle and Mabel (Coyle) Booth. She graduated from Tama High School. On May 12, 1945, she was united in marriage to Donald Moyer in Marshalltown, Iowa.

She was a member of the United Methodist Women at the Gilman United Methodist church. She was a homemaker and was known for her excellent cooking. She also enjoyed square dancing and sewing.

Jean is survived by her husband Donald of Gilman; a daughter and her husband Rebecca and Eldon Stanley of Gilman; three grandchildren; two great-granddaughters; two brothers and their wives, Richard and Peg Booth of Palm Desert, CA, and Jim and Jodi Booth of Bellevue, Neb.; four sisters and their husbands, Maxine and Bob Cuthbertson of Brooklyn, Adelene and George Luther of Olympia, Wash., Doris and Wesley Reida of Brooklyn, and Doris McLaughlin of Salem, Ore.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters Joann Barnes and Terry Vileta; an infant daughter Donna Jean; and a son Jan Scott.

Jean Moyer

Jean Moyer, 74, of rural Gilman died at her home Thursday, Feb. 14, following a lengthy illness. She was under the care of Grinnell Regional Hospice.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 19, at Harrison-Kruse-Phillips Funeral Home in Tama, with the Rev. E.W. Meads officiating. Burial will be at Oak Hill Cemetery, Tama. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

She was born June 18, 1927, in Tama to Lyle and Mabel Coyle Booth. She was a graduate of Tama High School.

On May 12, 1945, she was married to Donald Moyer in Marshalltown. She was a member of the United Methodist Women at the Gilman United Methodist Church. She was a homemaker.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Rebecca Stanley of Gilman; three grandchildren; two great-granddaughters; two brothers, Richard Booth of Palm Desert, Calif., and Jim Booth of Bellevue, Neb.; and four sisters, Maxine Cuthbertson of Brooklyn, Adelene Luther of Olympia, Wash., Doris Reida of Brooklyn and Dori McLaughlin of Salem, Ore.

A memorial fund has been established.