INITED IN DEATH

ouble Funeral Was Held This Morning For Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moyle.

HEIR DEATHS WERE ONLY A FEW HOURS APART

irs. Moyle Passed Away Monday Noon And Mr. Moyle Followed Tuesday Evening.

They were lovely and pleasant a their lives and in their death they ere not divided." These words just have come to the minds of lany when it was learned that tro. William Moyle had passed way on Monday morning of this reek and that her husband had followed her in death Tuesday evenus. For fifty eight years they had eved together, sharing life's struggles and successes, its sorrows and joys and it was eminently fitted they should go on together to the better land.

Mr. William Moyle was born in Cornwall, England, May 27, 1834. Its parents brought him to America in childhood. The family located at Hazel Green, Wisconsin. His ecople had been miners and William followed that calling when he came to young manhood. In 1854 with three companions he went to California and for nine years he was engaged there and in Colorado in the mining business. In 1863 he united with the Masonic order and has been a loyal and honored nember from that day to this.

In 1864 he returned home and on November 17th was married to Elizabeth Rapson at Platteville, Wisconsin. Mrs. Moyle was also of English birth, having been born a Cornwall November 30, 1846. When she was six years old her parents had emigrated to the States and settled in Wisconsin.

In 1868 Mr. and Mrs. Moyle moved to a farm near Chapin, Iowa, and there they resided for thirty-two years. Three children were born to them, the first dying in infancy, William Thomas whose memory will iong be honored in Grinnell, and Margaretta now Mrs. Jones of Mooreland, Oklahoma. The Moyle family is remembered in the Chapin neighborhood for integrity, genuine neighborliness and support of all good causes.

In 1900 Mr. and Mrs. Möyle came to Grinnell and here they have resided ever since except for a period of five years (1906-1911) when they were in California.

Mr. Moyle was a man of devout Christian character, robust in his attitude on moral questions, warm and hearty in his friendly relation toward his fellowmen. Mrs. Moyle was a woman of native refinement and grace, whose qualities of gentieness and courage were clearly displayed on the occasion of the accidents that befell her in recent years.

The whole family were chacterized by a rare mutual devotion. The daughter has never failed to risit her parents every year since her marriage and the constant and loving ministry of W. T. Moyle and his family to the old couple in their sunset days has been one of the inspiring facts of our community iffe.

Mr. William Moyle has no surviving relatives aside from his daughter and his grandchildren. Mrs. Moyle leaves a sister, Mrs. Esther Pooley of Evanston, Illinois, and three brothers, John and Tionas Rapson of Long Beach, Cattand Charles Rapson of Los Angeles, Calif.

"John Anderson, my Jo John ve've climbed the hill togither
And mony a canty day, John
We've had wi' ane anither.
No we mann totter down, John
But hand in hand we'll go,
And sleep togither at the foot
John, Anderson, my Jo."

Funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock this morning from the Moyle residence, conducted by Rev. E. W. Cross, who speke of comfort and hope. Mrs. E. B. T. Spencer sang.

Pall bearers for Mr. Moyle were shosen from the Masonic Lodge and were as follows: L. C. Bennett, John Mehlin, W. C. Rayburn, Frank Edge, Grant Ramsey and G. H. McMurray.

Pall bearers for Mrs. Moyle were D. M. Cox, John Manly, H. B. Brock, S. J. Pooley, Roy Terrell, Dr. L. G. Lemley.