

George H. Mullen, 69

BC August 21, 2002
George Herbert Mullen, 69, of Guernsey, died Sunday, Aug. 18, 2002, at Marengo Memorial Hospital, Marengo.

A graveside service will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 21, at Guernsey Cemetery. The Rev. David MacKain of St. John's Lutheran Church, rural Victor, will officiate. Soloist will be Sue Kluber. A memorial fund has been established. Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn, is handling arrangements.

Mr. Mullen was born Feb. 20, 1933, in Westgate, Iowa, to George Robert and Agnes (Buesing) Mullen. His family moved to Guernsey, where he graduated from high school in 1951. He married

Darlene Schrader; they later divorced.

He married Marjorie Schulte.

Mr. Mullen farmed and worked for Amana Refrigeration for 43 years, retiring in 1994. He belonged to St. John's Lutheran Church.

Surviving are a son, Bradley (Linda) Mullen, Brooklyn; two daughters, Kathy (Gary) Froelich, Des Moines, and Janelle (Kevin) Dvorak, Cedar Rapids; three stepsons, Duane Schulte of Cedar Rapids, Jesse Schulte of Ely and Gary Schulte of Indianola; 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

His parents and his wife, Marjorie, preceded him in death.