

Robert C. Mullen, 59

Robert C. Mullen, 59, of Guernsey, died on Sunday, Feb. 24, 2002, at Brooklyn Community Estates in Brooklyn.

A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, March 1, at the United Methodist Church in Guernsey. Following cremation, burial will be in the Riverside Cemetery in Charles City, Iowa. Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell is handling the arrangements. A memorial to the Guernsey United Methodist Church has been established.

He was born on September 28, 1942 in Charles City, Iowa to Charles and Cornelia Burnett Mullen. The family moved to Guernsey, where he was raised and graduated from high school with the Class of 1960. During the Vietnam Conflict he served for two years with the U.S. Army. He returned to Guernsey to make his home and worked as a forklift operator for Amana Refrigeration Company until retiring in September of 2001.

Robert was a member of the L.L. 1526 International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, the United Methodist Church of Guernsey, the Guernsey City Council and the Frances Gallagher Post 294 of the American Legion in Brooklyn. He was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening and yard work.

He is survived by his aunts, uncle and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Robert C. Mullen, 59

Robert C. Mullen, 59, of Guernsey, died Sunday, Feb. 24, at Brooklyn Community Estates.

A memorial service will be 10 a.m., Friday, March 1, at United Methodist Church in Guernsey. Burial of ashes will be at the Riverside Cemetery in Charles City. Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell is handling arrangements. Memorials are to United Methodist Church, Guernsey.

He was born Sept. 28, 1942, in Charles City to Charles and Cornelia (Burnett) Mullen. The family moved to Guernsey where he was raised and graduated from high school with the class of 1960. During the Vietnam Conflict, he served for two years with the U.S. Army. He returned to Guernsey to make his home and worked as a forklift operator for Amana Refrigeration Company until retiring in September 2001.

He was a member of the L.L. 1526 International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, the United Methodist Church of Guernsey, the Guernsey City Council and the Frances Gallagher Post 294 of the American Legion in Brooklyn.

He was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening and yard work.

Survivors include several relatives; no immediate family survives. He was preceded in death by his parents.